NATIVE AMERICAN BIRD SINGERS & DANCERS

in JOSHUA TREE NATIONAL PARK
INDIAN COVE

Friday, April 15, 2016 | 7:00 pm

Bird songs are a linkage between neighboring tribes and between generations, and are the heart of a growing revitalization movement.

This is a special opportunity for bird singers and dancers to perform in an intimate outdoor landscape important to local Native heritage and to gather with the community to share this experience.
